While attending a program entitled “Early American Schoolhouses” at the Brick Academy in Basking Ridge, New Jersey, the instructor passed out handouts that discussed rules for students, teachers, and punishments in 1872. Meg Wastie, program coordinator at the Museum of Early Trades and Crafts in Madison and a former teacher, presented a great program overview of the Museum of Early Trades and Crafts.

Student Rules - 1872

Student Rules Today

After the session, I was curious as to what some of the rules are today for those attending high school. Checking out the local high school website, I found a set of rules for students in the student handbook. In addition to reading the rules, I think that students are asked to sign some kind of contract that they agree to abide by the rules, and that the parents are also required to sign off as well.

While back in 1872 there was one page of rules, I was surprised to find the 2009 conduct handbook was 40 pages. One thing to notice is that many of the rules today are actually New Jersey state legislation, so they'd be more like laws than rules, right?

2009 Student Rules Handbook

Cell Phone Policy

Students are permitted to bring a cell phone to school for use before or after school hours. Cell phones must be turned off from 7:35 AM to 2:25 PM.

Cards and Dice Policy

Playing cards and dice games are not permitted in school at any time.

Dress Code

In accordance with the Character Education initiative in Bernards Township, Ridge High School students are expected to dress in a modest manner that is appropriate for school and in accordance with standards of good taste. DRESS CANNOT BE DISRUPTIVE TO THE SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT. Beach and casual attire such as short shorts, halter-tops tube tops, low-cut tops, spaghetti straps and bare midriffs are examples of inappropriate dress for school. Sleeveless tops, including "muscle shirts" are prohibited for boys. Underwear that is visible (including bra straps) is always inappropriate. Culottes and shorts are acceptable if they are of appropriate length. Mini-skirts, dresses and shorts must not be extreme. Length of dresses, skirts and shorts must be as long as the end of fingertips when arms are resting at side. State law requires that shoes be worn at all times. Any attire that references alcohol, drugs or gambling in any manner or which contain phrases and/or symbols capable of misinterpretation or multiple interpretations are never permitted to be worn. Students wearing such attire will be asked to leave the school building until they are appropriately attired and will be subject to disciplinary action.

Experiments Involving Animals

Legislation now permits public school students to choose not to participate in certain experiments involving animals. Public school pupils from kindergarten through grade 12 may refuse to dissect, vivisect, incubate, capture or otherwise harm or destroy animals or any parts thereof as part of a course of instruction.

Disciplinary Measures - Bus

Satisfactory behavior is expected of students who ride buses.

"The driver shall be in full charge of the school bus at all times and shall be responsible for maintaining order. A bus driver may not exclude a pupil from the bus, but if unable to manage a pupil, shall report the unmanageable pupil to the principal of the school he/she attends." (Title 18A:25-2)

"A pupil may be excluded from the bus for disciplinary reasons by the principal and his parent/guardian shall provide for his transportation to and from school during the period of such exclusion." (Title 18A:25-2)

Students whose repeated actions have caused safety and welfare concerns on the bus are subject to disciplinary measures. Drivers shall report in writing to the building principal any unsatisfactory behavior on the bus. Depending on the severity of the behavior, the building principal shall take the following steps:

- conference with the student and warning given
- written notification to the parents/guardians
- after school detention
- suspension of bus privileges
- in-school or out-of-school suspension

When Would You Prefer to Be a Student?

So, what time period is more strict? 1872 when it was a one pager, or 2009 with the 40 pages? After thinking about it, I'm not sure. Are these rules attempting to parent our kids? Perhaps it's because the schools have to mandate common courtesies and proper social behaviors? Or maybe there's been so many problems with litigating religious and constitutional freedoms, that the system's forced to do it. Fee free to post your thoughts.
